

1st DASISH Quantitative Workshop
"Digital Resources in International Survey Research"
Hotel Steigenberger, Mannheim, Germany
12-13 December 2012

AGENDA

Day 1 (10.00-18.00)

Chair: Angelika Scheuer / Eric Harrison

1. Welcome and Presentation of the DASISH project

Questionnaire development documentation

2. Sally Widdop (CITY University London): DASISH: Plans and goals of WP₃
3. Andrej Kveder (NIDI The Hague): Questionnaire development and documentation in GGP
4. Summary Discussion

Tool for the development of multi-language Questionnaire

5. Maurice Martens (CentERdata Tilburg): DASISH: Plans and goals of WP₃

LUNCH

6. Michèle Ernst Stähli (FORS Lausanne): Towards an integrated survey management tool
7. Steve Schwarzer / Pascal Chelala (TNS opinion Brussels): Tools for the development of multi-language questionnaires
8. Evelyn Brislinger (GESIS Cologne): Workflow connecting Translation and Documentation (the use case EVS 1999-2008)
9. Summary Discussion

DINNER

Day 2 (9.00-14.00)Chair Angelika Scheuer / Eric Harrison*Developing a fieldwork monitoring system

10. Johanna Bristle (MEA Munich): DASISH: Plans and goals of WP3
11. Kyle Fennell / Tom W. Smith (TNS opinion Brussels): From questions to interventions: an integrated model for using paradata to monitor and improve fieldwork
12. Summary Discussion

Surveying and coding the occupation question

13. Peter Elias / Margaret Birch (University of Warwick): Cascot – newest developments
14. Kea Tijdens (University of Amsterdam): Measuring and coding occupations in multi-country surveys

LUNCH

15. Silke Schneider (GESIS Mannheim): A project on computer-assisted education measurement
16. Summary Discussion

Planning the future

17. Planning further exchange or collaboration

MEETING CLOSURE